OFFICE

SECRETARIES

Our Superintendent, Mr. E. A. Wooten, who for the last four years has devoted his time to enlarging the curriculum and improving the buildings on the grounds, is a former graduate of C. H. S. A home town boy who has made good.

Our Principal, Mr. J. E. Miller, has been with us for three years. He is a friend who is always ready to listen to one's troubles. Many times he has set a wrong foot back on the right track. He knows most of the answers.

FHA FFA
SWEETARTS

In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of a bid to the annual F. H. A. Sweetheart Banquet where blue birds, pastel shades and pretty girls lend an air of glamor to the evening, accentuated by soft lights and sweet music for dancing.

The pretty misses on the float below are: Barbara Beck and Barbara McDougal

The boys in the top picture grin broadly to show they are delighted to be the winners of the District Chapter Conducting team and the third place winners of Area XI. They are, from left to right: Doyle Bourne, Raymond Hinders, Jimmy Cornette, Tom Wright, Ed Harrell, John Brandt, Coy Black, Tom Cooch, Donnie Stroup, Don Johnson, Sterling Cummings, and Advisor-T. L. Devin. At Bottom is assembled the entire group of the Canyon Chapter Future Farmers of America

The boys not only study farming but learn leadership as well, as illustrated by these pictures. Landon Barrett and Larry Porter help Richmond Payne round up his whiteface calves which are a part of the commercial-fed calves of the Canyon Chapter F. F. A. boys. At bottom: Tom Myers, Tom Wright, Jim Dodgins admire Donnie Stroup's find litter of Poland China Pigs.

Robert Ames	Eugene Hill
Margaret Ames	Linda Dooley
Alicia Ames	Teddie Bynum
Mrs. Ames	Mary Peppard
Mr. Crawford	Larry Prater

Margaret and Robert are always arguing about something, usually about Bob's crude manners.

In the first picture Mrs. Ames tells them to calm down.

The second shot shows Margaret throwing a pillow at Bob as he quickly exits.

Here the perfect gent spills olives all over the floor while trying to be a fancy waiter.

Bob looks on with surprise and disgust as he catches Alicia and Mr. Crawford in each other's arms.

The climax is reached when Bob quite un-gentlemanly states: "Soup's on, Mr. Crawford."

GREETINGS

Each member of the Annual Staff wishes to give a word of advice or encouragement to those who plan to serve on this project next year.

Linda: If you've got plenty of leisure time the Staff needs you!

Bette: It's been a lot of fun and thoroughly worthwhile.

Teddie: It's a new and interesting experience.

Geneva: If you don't mind sticky fingers and black spots on all your clothes, it's fun.

Richmond: It's the only class in which I can make an A.

Dixie: If you like hard work and can stick to it, join up.

Florence: It's been an experience to remember always.

Richard: I joined late, bad heart, you know; I couldn't stand the strain.

James: Don't ask me, I'm just the photographer!
